

Success Educator Survey

	Highly developed skill	Moderate skill	Limited skill	Limited awareness
Skills and Attitudes
Belief in your worst students
Empower students to solve own problems (don't over intervene)
Willing to commit to your students
Communicating clear performance criteria
Use constructive intervention to grow skills
Diagnose learning issues
Use tough love
Challenge performance
Build strong rapport (understand where students are coming from; get students to disclose personal risk factors)
Mentoring sub-score (tally each column)
Use assessment tools extensively
Continually assess performance
Engage in personal self-assessment
Teach students to self-validate
Build students self-assessment skills
Assessment sub-total
Build reading skills
Use writing to learn
Support cooperative learning
Aware of risk factors that students bring to college (know common risk factors)
Extensively use learning tools
Build learning communities (across teams)
Facilitation sub-total

continued on next page

